- 25X1C 1. It was learned [redacted] that the von Arnim Chateau in Boitzenburg (N 54/U 93) has been used as a recreation center for VP personnel since deactivation or transfer of the VP Bereitschaft which had been stationed there prior to the summer of 1950. About 200 Volkspolizei of all ranks, sometimes including Seepolizei who allegedly came from Muaritz Lake, were at the chateau in cycles of one week for recreation and political and military instructions given by six to eight VP officers from Prenzlau.

2. After a thorough inspection of the interior of the chateau, [redacted] concluded that the chateau would eventually be converted into a hospital. The wing of the chateau which burnt down in 1950 was being reconstructed. Two wooden sheds in the surrounding park were disassembled and hauled away in January 1951.
